Persons (including his or her appointed representatives) pursuing a claim in respect of a road traffic accident (including citizens of other countries) may also obtain information which is held on the MID.

It is vital that the MID holds your correct registration number. If it is incorrectly shown on MID you are at risk of having your vehicle seized by the Police. You can check that your correct registration number details are shown on the MID at www.askmid.com.

Sharing Information

Insurers pass on information to The Claims and Underwriting Exchange register, and the Motor Insurance Anti-Fraud and Theft Register, run by the Motor Insurers' Bureau (MIB). The aim is to help us check information provided and also to prevent fraudulent claims. When we deal with your request for insurance or manage any claim that may arise, we may search the register(s).

Fraudulent Claims

Fraudulent claims are a serious problem for insurers and any costs arising from such activity are inevitably passed on to honest policyholders. In order to protect your interests and the interests of the vast majority of our policyholders, we fully investigate all claims, and where fraud is detected we report to the authorities under the Proceeds of Crime Act (POCA).

If false or inaccurate information is provided and fraud is suspected, details will be passed to fraud prevention agencies. Savings obtained from information provided to the Cheatline will help reduce insurance premiums. More information can be provided if requested.

If you make any changes to your policy, your premium may be recalculated and you may have to pay an additional premium or you may receive a refund of premium, both of which will be subject to a minimum premium charge of £25 (plus insurance premium tax (IPT) where applicable). We will also charge a fee to cover our administration costs. Your insurance intermediary may also make a charge for their administration costs.

Payments made outside policy terms.

If the law of any country in which this policy covers you makes us obliged to settle or pay a claim which we would not normally have paid, we are entitled to ask you to repay us.

Changes to your policy cover or details.

You must advise us (or your insurance intermediary if applicable) immediately if any of your details change, including but not limited to: change of motor vehicle, address, use, drivers, annual mileage, occupations; vehicle modifications; medical conditions; motoring offences or fixed penalties; non-motoring offences.

When a change is advised to us, we review your cover; therefore your premium may be altered. Also, depending on the change, you are not insured until a revised Certificate of Motor Insurance has been issued.
